

Minos

Minos.

Minos. ancient Greek

Bull.

Tauros.
ancient Greek

Minos uttered sweet sounds.

Lara d'apo stomaton fthenksato Minos.
anon., ancient Greek

Ah, what can I say?
Where can I go?
I can no longer control my tongue.

Feu, ti lekso?
Poi logon amekhanon eltho?
Kraten garuketi glisso sthenō.
Sophocles, Electra

My heart is dancing with fear.

Orkhetai de kardia fobo.
Aeschylus, The Libation Bearers

Worthy bull.

Aksi taureh.
Anonymous, ancient Greek

Up, mother, lead the dance,
whirl through the paces;
hasten the spell with your dancing.

Khoru, mater, anageh, poda son
helisseh tad eh-keseh met' eh-methen podon ferusa filtatan basin.
Euripides, Trojan Women

The vowels and consonants in the transliterated Greek should be sung as in Italian. I have used hyphens and punctuation to indicate these "orphan" syllables (i.e. for the word "stomaton," "sto-" is the first syllable; "-ma-" is the second; and "-ton." is the third).

All translations are by Mary Jane Leach.